

MEETING

“That's the ideal meeting...once upon a time, only once, unexpectedly, then never again.”

WHAT IS MEETING?

when someone has "had a meeting," it means that they attended an actual meeting, either scheduled or called, of a group to which that person belongs, either at work or as a social or recreational group, and thus, comparable to a "business meeting."

Google Slides Themes.com

WHAT IS THE PURPOSE OF THE MEETING?

A meeting is where a group of people come together to discuss issues, to improve communication, to promote coordination or to deal with any matters that are put on the agenda and to help get any jobs done.

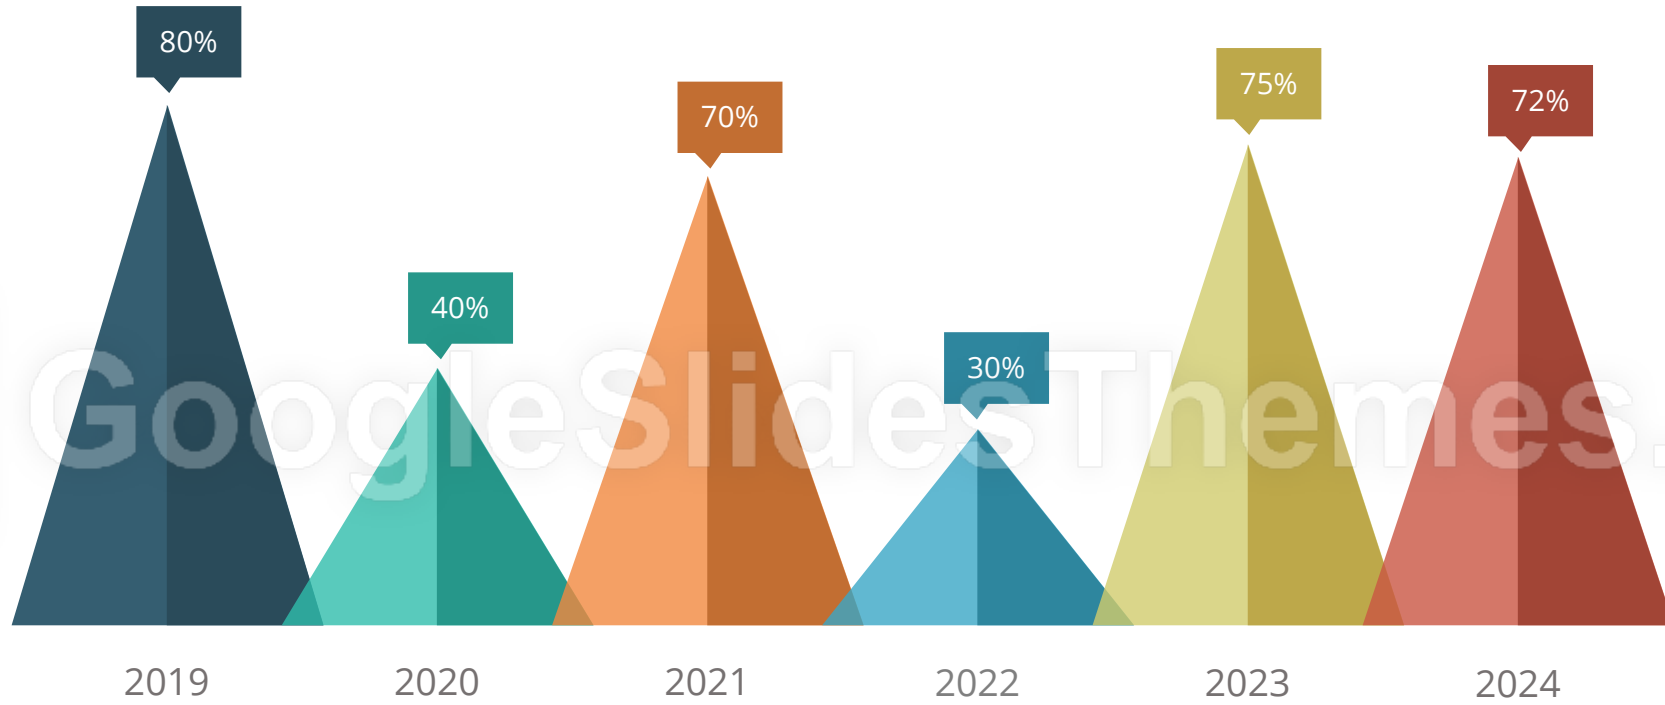

WHAT ARE TYPES OF MEETINGS?

- Status Update Meetings.
- Information Sharing Meetings.
- Decision Making Meetings.
- Problem Solving Meetings.
- Innovation Meetings.
- Team Building Meetings.

VISION & ROADMAP OF MEETING

START TITLE

TEXTS...

END TITLE

TEXTS...

HYBRID PACKAGE OF MEETING

Texts about hybrid packages

RESULTS OF MEETING

- Texts about results
- Texts about results
- Texts about results

WHY IS IT IMPORTANT TO ATTEND STAFF MEETINGS?

Because their staff work different rosters, it's important to get their team together. Verge is constantly growing, so meetings are important for discussing future plans and goals. Management make it a point to express appreciation, and make sure their staff stay happy and motivated.

ARE MEETINGS NECESSARY?

Only people who're needed to achieve meeting goals should attend it. If you're attending a meeting without really having a role in it, your presence shouldn't be required.

JOIN US OF MEETING

- Website link
- Address of the company

GoogleSlidesTemplates.com